The Interfaith tradition isn't new. It is actually an ancient pattern which has succeeded periodically through the centuries when nurtured by vision and honored by commitment.

We open our hearts and minds to each other. For we seek to honor and savor the beauty and wisdom of each others faith.

Empowered by deeper understanding and friendship, we embrace happiness for one another and co-create a lasting, creative, vibrant Peace.

Saturday Evening May 29, 2010 —

You are warmly invited to an Interfaith Evening at San Jose Friends Meetinghouse.

I seek to honor that which you hold sacred.

I honor your place and pattern of worship and am moved when you share them with me.

I honor the beauty and wisdom tucked within your scriptures and long to have you lead me to a deeper appreciation of them.

You are warmly invited to an interfaith evening hosted by San Jose Friends' Meeting
