

FASTING & FEASTING TOGETHER

A Family Reunion of Abraham's Children

October 6, 2005, 6:00 p.m.

Circle of the Palms

(between the Fairmont Hotel and San Jose Art Museum)

This year, World Communion Day, Rosh Hashanah, the beginning of Ramadan, and the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi all fall within the first few days of October. Ramadan is the yearly time of fasting and reflection for Muslims, and Rosh Hashanah marks the New Year, the beginning of the High Holy Days for Jews. At about the same time, Catholics will observe the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi and many Protestants will join in World Communion Sunday.

Beginning at 6:00 P.M., there will be a time for prayers for peace and mutual understanding, followed by the breaking of the fast and sharing bread together.
